

Join the Alliance Française Sacramento

The Capital Region's Unique French Center

The Alliance Française Sacramento is the Capital's French language and culture center, welcoming French-speaking people and francophiles from all over the Sacramento area. Founded in 2000 as an independent nonprofit organization, the Alliance now counts more than 600 members and 250 students per session.

Mission

The Alliance's mission is to promote the French language and culture and to foster friendships between French speakers and people living in the Sacramento region.

The Alliance Française: A World of French

Founded in Paris in 1883, the Alliance Française currently counts more than 800 chapters in 130 countries, with over half a million students worldwide. The U.S. network includes over 100 Alliances and more than 24,000 students.

Learn French with the Alliance

Alliance Française classes are fun and effective! Our teachers use the latest teaching methods, emphasizing speaking and listening skills. For adults, we offer beginner, intermediate, advanced and special interest classes, workshops and private lessons. For children, we offer group and private classes and French summer camp.

Events & Cultural Programs

We host French cultural and social programs throughout the year, including film screenings, social gatherings, talks, book clubs, museum visits, cultural events, and conversation groups.

Join Us!

Alliance Française Sacramento members enjoy access to our book and film library, Culturethèque digital media resource, reduced event rates, and the opportunity to enroll in Alliance classes. Be a part of our growing francophile and francophone community!
