Soirée Cinéma: "Je vais bien, t'en fais pas"
Friday, May 10, 7pm

Please join us for our monthly Soirée Cinéma on Friday, May 10th for "Je vais bien, ne t'en fais pas" ("Don't Worry, I'm Fine"), a French drama that explores many aspects of family life and finding yourself.

Genre: Drama

Director: Philippe Lioret
(Nominated for César Award for Best Director)

Review (Variety): "Philippe Lioret tackles the stifling prefab conformity of the Parisian suburbs in the ironically titled "Don't Worry, I'm Fine." A young woman's search for her missing twin brother leads her through some potentially pedestrian TV-movie territory, including a standard-issue dysfunctional family and a bout with near-fatal anorexia."

Cast:
Mélanie Laurent
(Winner of César Award for Most Promising Actress)
Kad Merad
(Winner of César Award for Best Supporting Actor)
Isabelle Renauld
Julien Boisselier
Simon Buret
Aïssa Maïga

Trailer:

Films are shown in the Alliance library, located on the second floor of the CLARA Studios for the Performing Arts, 2420 N Street in Midtown Sacramento. Please enter through the northeast door off the rear parking lot, as other building doors may be locked. If you need to use the accessible ramp, please contact the office no later than the Thursday before the film.
